Reach, Teach and Achieve

The ministry of St. Philip's is a manifestation of the true definition of God's call. As you explore these pages that represent your personal and sacrificial engagement in helping the St. Philip's School and Community Center ministry to bless lives, I hope you'll do so with a special thought – REACH. TEACH. ACHIEVE.

This is truly God's call for our lives.

Reach the people. Teach His goodness in order to Achieve God's work through and for His faithful followers. The word "each" resides in both "reach" and "teach." At St. Philip's, the students are trained to understand that everyone's responsibility in life is to Reach out to bless the lives of others and Teach of God's will for how we should spend our time on earth.

The REACH of St. Philip's to our families and the surrounding community is undeniable. Our collaboration with 60 plus agencies is a demonstration of stewardship at its highest level of efficiency. This year's annual report is a celebration of these collective sacrifices, support, and prayers. By God's design, nothing is accomplished in a vacuum of one person. Each volunteer, financial gift, and prayer made this year - through God's grace - has allowed St. Philip's to ACHIEVE. It can also be noted that "I" resides within the word achieve.

Thank you for your role in helping the St. Philip's School and Community Center ministry fulfill God's will for us to REACH, TEACH and ACHIEVE His purpose for our lives and the community we serve. The impact of the "works" of St. Philip's is irrefutable and your compassionate support makes it all possible.

Keeping and leveraging the faith,

Message from the Board Chair

Partners and Friends,

St. Philip's School and Community Center's 2013 – 2014 year proved to be one full of milestones and progress made possible through your generous and compassionate support. We kicked off the year by breaking ground and beginning the process of expanding our Community Center food pantry into a true, client choice, state of the art pantry for South Dallas. In January, we celebrated Dr. Terry J. Flowers' 30th year of service at St. Philip's. His leadership has proven to be a God-send for St. Philip's and South Dallas. Hundreds of students, faculty/staff, alumni, neighbors, current and former trustees, and partners came together to celebrate his visionary leadership and the tremendous progress made during his tenure.

Three significant grants positioned St. Philip's to expand and integrate its After School Care, Pre-K University and Wisdom Warrior summer programs. A dedication for the Morning Star Chapel's newly installed stained glass windows took place and our two major fundraising events – one celebrating Dallas philanthropists, Sally and Forrest Hoglund, and the other featuring Oscar winner, Marlee Matlin, – were fruitful.

Additionally, of our St. Philip's Class of 2008, 100% graduated high school and 95% headed to various colleges and universities in the fall 2014 to continue their education and steady march toward their bright destinies.

We share in the success of 2014 with the 1,000+ volunteers, engaged families, dynamic faculty and staff, and 700+ donors whose contribution of time and treasure empowered all we do at St. Philip's School and Community Center. A place I consider to be a beacon of hope and light in South Dallas and our city.

With Gratitude,

David Saustad

2013 – 2014 School & Community Center Highlights

- In January, our Executive Director/Headmaster – Dr. Terry J. Flowers – celebrated his 30th Anniversary with St. Philip's. The school's annual Heritage Production was an original play in tribute to Dr. Flowers' service entitled "It's a Wonderful Life" and was performed at the Black Academy of Arts and Letters.
- St. Philip's middle school students – Kevin Evans (4th grade) and Anthony Andrews (6th grade) advanced to city-wide competition for the Private School Spelling Bee and the Geography Bee. Kevin placed 2nd in the Spelling Bee....and he competed against 8th graders!
- A team of St. Philip's 4th and 5th grade boys took Second Place in the 4th Annual African American Male Academic Bowl, sponsored by Dallas County Community College District, Project Still I Rise, and the University of North Texas at Dallas
- 250 of our vulnerable South Dallas neighbors were served by our annual Community Thanksgiving Dinner and 125 shopped in our Christmas Store
- 85% of St. Philip's students achieved A or A/B Honor Roll status
- 65% of St. Philip's faculty now hold Masters degrees
- St. Philip's two major fundraising events were successful. Our fall event, a tribute to local philanthropists and "dynamic duo," Sally and Forrest Hoglund, was held at the newly opened Perot Museum. The 14th Annual Destiny Award Luncheon featured Oscar Winner, Marlee Matlin, and honored Nancy Ann and Ray Hunt for Leadership; David Timothy, The Soup Man, for Unsung Hero; the Circle Ten Council, for Organization; and Omni Dallas Hotel, for Corporation. At the event, the entire St. Philip's student body surprised Ms. Matlin with a beautiful rendition of the St. Philip's Creed in sign language.
- SMU Engineering students partnered with St. Philip's to transform our community garden into the only one in South Dallas with aquaponics and raised beds for the elderly
- St. Philip's hosted two Safe Conversations workshops for over 200 couples. Founded by Drs. Helen and Harville Hendrix, these unique workshops empower couples and entire families to communicate better, resolve conflicts, and to learn and practice critical communication skills.
- Two of our 6th graders served as readers of the "I Have a Dream" speech, along with a diverse group of Dallas leaders and clergy, at the Let Freedom Ring event at Thanksgiving Square, in recognition of the 50th Anniversary of the March on Washington.
- Afterschool care expanded in scope and participation, reinforcing academics, while integrating the arts, service learning, culture, mentoring, and athletics. S.P.A.<sup>3</sup>C.E.S or the St. Philip's Arts and Academic Afterschool Care Enrichment program now includes dozens of non-students who participate at no cost to their parents.
- In its first year, the MyChildren's Clinic, located on St. Philip's campus offering quality pediatric care to neighborhood children and youth (insured and uninsured), served 1,500 families.

Collaborations Key to Groundbreaking Community Food Pantry Expansion

A big impact on Hunger is being made in South Dallas, one of our city's most notorious food deserts. Over a decade ago, St. Philip's established a food pantry on its campus, operated by the Community Center, to address the hunger needs of some of our neighbors. The pantry operated out of what is deemed an oversized closet and served over 200 homes a month.

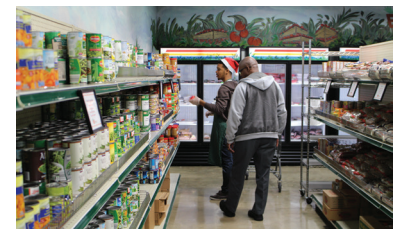

St. Philip's considers itself to be the "king of collaboration" and its recent food pantry expansion project has been an example of what good can come through thoughtful, well planned, and critical collaboration between both non-profit, private, city and county entities.

With the help of In the City for Good, North Texas Food Bank, Kroger, Trammel Crow Company, the City of Dallas, and The Real Estate Council, St. Philip's embarked on a Food Pantry expansion project in 2013 to better serve its neighbors in a more dignified manner and more suitable environment. The expansion was completed in July 2014 and Our Community Pantry opened in a renovated 1,500 square foot building adjacent to St. Philip's campus that once housed a liquor store. Since opening, the state of the art pantry, now operated by North Texas Food Bank, stands as a model for pantries in similar communities.

"It's good. You don't have to sit and wait in a long line like before," explains pantry client, 82-year-old Luvenia Smith. "And the people are friendly. I like having so many kinds of food to choose from."

Our Community Pantry is now set up like a small grocery store, complete with grocery carts, aisles of canned and packaged foods and goods, refrigeration for meats, dairy, and frozen vegetables, and even a check-out counter! Clients shop with volunteer "personal shoppers" and are able to utilize the pantry every three weeks.

Era Boyd is a loyal pantry volunteer currently sharing her time five full hours, three days a week. She is retired, lives alone and loves the opportunity to help others. “I am committed to this,” she says. “I’m close by and get to serve my neighbors and neighborhood,” she explains. Some of Boyd’s pantry clients attend her church. “Everyone likes that it’s like a grocery store now and it feels more like shopping than charity.”

The majority of our community pantry’s clients are families and the elderly, many of whom live in the immediate neighborhood or within a five mile radius of St. Philip’s campus. The new building is also handicap accessible. Two full time employees from North Texas Food Bank now operate the pantry that now more than tripled the number of clients served in its first month.

It’s a new day for South Dallas and the community St. Philip’s School and Community Center chooses to serve.

The new food pantry is made possible by the generous support and partnership of the following entities:

Alliance Architects	King of Glory Lutheran Church
Cabe Legacy Foundation	Kroger
City of Dallas	Lear Corporation
Communities Foundation of Texas	Meadows Foundation
Dallas County	North Texas Food Bank
Fast Trak Construction	St. Philip’s School and Community Center
George A. and Nancy Shutt Foundation	TRC International
Harold Simmons Foundation	The Real Estate Council
Hoblitzelle Foundation	Trammell Crow Company
In the City for Good	Quorum Commercial

Family Impact: The Honeymans

We have our kids at St. Philip’s because it is absolutely the finest education we can provide for our children. Period. End of story. My wife is a teacher in a very ‘prominent’ school district in Dallas and has been for the past 15 years. Her standards for education are extraordinarily high. It took 5 minutes of her visiting St. Philip’s to realize that there is something different here. There is something special. Something that cannot be found anywhere else in Dallas, or in my opinion, anywhere else in the country. That something for us is a mix of extremely high standards and an extraordinary commitment to community. It is cliché to say that your kids’ school is a family, but in the case of St. Philip’s, it is absolutely true. Initially, we were nervous about how we might ‘fit in.’ How ridiculous that nervousness seems now! We are part of a family that is indelible and unchanging. We would do anything for St. Philip’s and we are CERTAIN that St. Philip’s would do anything for us. That is extraordinarily rare and extremely powerful.

My wife and I remind ourselves every day of how thankful we are that we were led to St. Philip’s. It has changed our lives, and more importantly, it has changed the lives of our children. We are so thankful for the hard work, focus, and passion that exude from every corner of St. Philip’s. We are SHOCKED that there isn’t a line around the corner to get in. It truly is Dallas’ best-kept educational secret. And it is truly the miracle at 1600 Pennsylvania. All kids deserve the education and community that St. Philip’s provides, and we count ourselves blessed that our kids are St. Philip’s Saints.

Legacy Impact: Dorothy’s Life at The Center

I was reared at 3520 Cleveland Street in Dallas just around the corner and down the street from St. Philip’s, which we referred to as “The Center” back then. This is a former Jewish neighborhood and our family was one of the first to integrate it. When growing up, I walked past The Center daily to attend Colonial Elementary and James Madison High School, where I graduated. That was about 50 years ago, around the time that J.F. Kennedy was president, Dr. M.L. King, Jr. was giving speeches across the country, Malcolm X and Cassius Clay (Muhammad Ali) were receiving national attention, and Bishop College students came to St. Philip’s to chaperone and practice with us neighborhood kids.

St. Philip’s had a bus that came around about twice a week to gather the kids and take us on outings. I learned how to play softball and to skate during that time. Our life skills were developed at The Center. I even received job training to become a secretary there.

This was all between 1962-1968. Back then, there was The Center only. The school didn’t exist. However, what we were being taught there at The Center was so essential to our development. As I recall, had it not been for St. Philip’s Center and Mrs. Juanita Craft’s garage (where our NAACP Youth meetings were held) we wouldn’t have had much back then. I thank God for my experiences at St. Philip’s and will cherish every moment from here on out. I am so proud to have been a part of this great institution and consider myself an alum of St. Philip’s.

St. Philip's Foundation Report

The St. Philip's Foundation was established as a non-profit 501 (c) 3 corporation in March, 1997 to assist St. Philip's School and Community Center by soliciting, receiving, investing, and managing gifts, grants, contributions and bequests to the School and Community Center. The mission of the Foundation is to support the long term-goals, purposes and objectives of St. Philip's School and Community Center.

The Foundation ended 2014 on a high note. We have reached the goal of raising $300,000.00 in new contributions to the foundation that have been matched dollar for dollar by a very generous anonymous donor. This was truly a blessing.

The Foundation ended the year with assets that were approximately $9,500,000.00. During the past 12 months, we were able to distribute approximately $500,000.00 to fund St. Philip's annual operating budget.

We are also very excited to announce a new alliance with Bill Lively. Bill will be working with the school and the Foundation as we start 2015 on some big plans to tremendously grow St. Philip's Endowment.

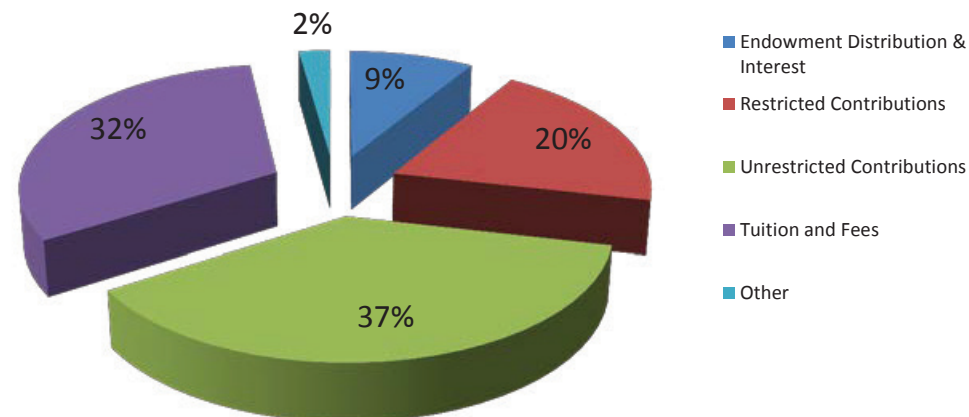

Stay tuned for updates on this effort.

Sincerely,

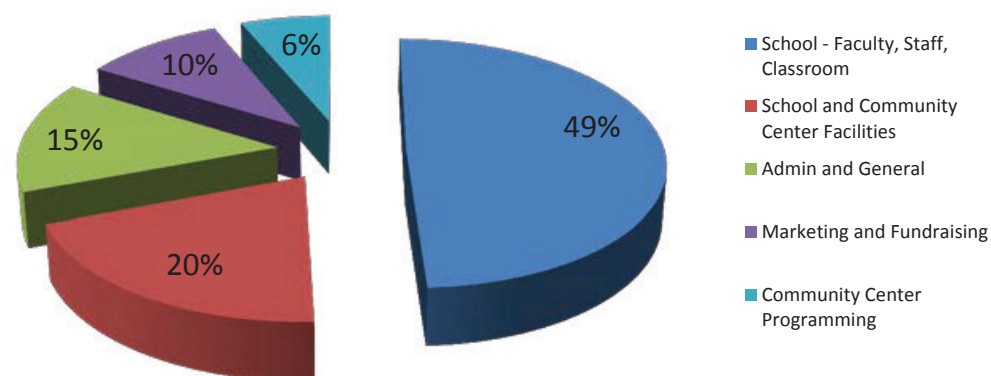

Dow Crocker, St. Philip's Foundation Chair

Donor Spotlight

Dr. Ciondria Jones, St. Philip's Alum

In my opinion, one should contribute to St. Philip's because it is a wonderful institution that affords children an excellent education. It has greatly impacted the lives of several students as well as the community as a whole. In addition to being a school, St. Philip's is a family. It is such a nurturing environment that you cannot help but fall in love with this school. I graduated over 20 years ago and Dr. Flowers and all of my teachers still remember me and my family. This school instills a sense of pride and humility in students that helps them excel in life. St. Philip's teaches the students to give back. It is an honor for me to give back to a place that has given so much to me.

The Junior League of Dallas

The Junior League of Dallas is committed to improving the community through the action of our trained volunteers and investments in quality programs. We are proud to support St. Philip's School & Community Center with both funding and volunteers as we believe the investment promotes excellence in education and is making Dallas a better place.

– Julie Bagley

President, Junior League of Dallas

In Memoriam

Our death is not an end if we can live on in our children and the younger generation. For they are us, our bodies are only wilted leaves on the tree of life. - Albert Einstein

The St. Philip's family mourns the passing of longtime, loyal and generous friends of the St. Philip's School and Community Center ministry – Mrs. Laurie Cox, Mr. Richard "Dick" Snyder, Ms. Patricia Hutcheson, and Mr. Delbert Henry Lutz.

Laurie, a former trustee, was a beautiful artist and compassionate soul that will be missed. She and her husband, Martin, also a former trustee, are tremendous ambassadors of the organization.

St. Philip's new Snyder Activity Center, located in the Life Center Building that opened in 2010, was made possible due to the major contribution Dick, his wife, Roberta, and daughter Stacey, made to the Great Things Lie Ahead Capital Campaign.

Mr. Lutz, an Exxon Mobil retiree, and his wife, Sally have supported St. Philip's since the early 1990s. His family is establishing an Early Childhood technology lab at St. Philip's, in his memory.

Dozens of students were blessed by Patricia Hutcheson's consistent and quiet support of St. Philip's Sponsor-A-Child program over the last two decades.

We thank God for all of their involvement with St. Philip's and to have witnessed the inspiring evidence of their impact and work. We feel blessed to have called each of them our friends and partners in our vital, noble work.

*Disclaimer: This Annual Report reflects gifts between July 1, 2013 and June 30, 2014. We have made every effort to give proper credit to all who have contributed to St. Philip's School and Community Center. ## Ways to Support St. Philip's – Time, Talent & Treasure

St. Philip's has thrived through the tremendous support provided by a dedicated community of alumni, parents, grandparents, and friends. For decades, St. Philip's School and Community Center has embodied excellence, in large part because our community has given generously of its time, talents, and treasures. There are many opportunities to make an impact on the important work of St. Philip's School and Community Center.

■ Planned Giving – This is an opportunity for you to leave a lasting legacy at St. Philip's by making contributions through a bequest to St. Philip's in your will or naming St. Philip's as a co-beneficiary in a life insurance policy.

■ Securities – Raymond James is the primary securities trader for St. Philip's School and Community Center. By donating securities to St. Philip's through Raymond James, 100% of the value of your securities is awarded to the School. Contact the Philanthropy Office for more information at philanthropy@stphilips.com or 214.421.5221 ext. 239.

■ MATCHING GIFTS – Many employers match gifts by current and retired employees. This is an easy way to double your monetary gift or place a monetary value of your volunteer time to St. Philip's School and Community Center. Contact the Human Resources office of your employer for the form to match your gift to St. Philip's.

■ SHOP AND SHARE – St. Philip's benefits from your shopping with Kroger, Tom Thumb, Target and GoodSearch.

■ THE GIFT OF TIME – From landscaping to mentoring, there are many ways that you or your business/employers can become part of making an impact in the South Dallas area. We need your hands, too!

2014 Graduates

I am happy my parents chose this school for my family. In the future I want to go to many more places and learn many things. I will be attending St. Marks in the fall. In college, I want to study aeronautic engineering or business because I want to be the founder and owner of an airline. All sixteen St. Philip's graduates have plans for a bright future.

As you can see, my classmates and I are capable of anything. My dad always says hard work pays off, and I am happy to say, "St. Philip's, your hard work has paid off in all of us."
