

The Musco Family | ST. PHILIP'S ALUMNI FAMILY

Food is the magic ingredient that binds the Incredible Musco family together! James and Tominko Musco are the dynamic duo and proud parents of St. Philip's alums SeMaj, Jayden, and current 5th grader Trinity. James, a project manager by trade, began his love in the kitchen 17 years ago baking custom cakes for family and friends. Shortly thereafter, strangers begin contacting, "The Baker's Man" for his custom cakes and other desserts. The love of cooking did not stop there with cakes and other desserts. It later evolved into catering many of his famous creole/cajun dishes. SeMaj, a senior and Jayden, a sophomore, enjoy making "copycat restaurant" recipes and sauces while Trinity, 5th grade, serves as her dad's apprentice. Tominko, an educator, contributes often with menus, recipes, food prep, taste testing and clean up. There is no sincerer love than the love of God, family, and food. The Incredible Musco family believes food just taste better when you enjoy it with family.
